SAYS AEROPLANE FLEW OVER TOWN

Flying Machine a Night Visitor to this Section Say Local Residents who Saw Sky Visitor after Dark. Well Managed.

Gettysburg was visited by an aeroplane on a night trip according to Mr. Maurice Bushman, of Baltimore street. Joseph Stock and several others who discerned the outlines of the aerial visitor as it glided and swooped in graceful curves over Culp's Hill and Rock Creek.

Mr. Bushman first noticed the unusual visitor about eight o'clock in the evening when on his way home. He thought that it was an unusually brilliant star but soon he discovered that it was moving at considerable speed and he quickly called relatives and friends to view the sight. Mr. Bushman in describing the visit of the "human bird" says:

"The machine carried a light which was thrown in different directions and when it finally came around our way we could easily make out the outlines of the machine. Whether it was a monoplane, a biplane or what special variety of flying machine it was we could not discover but it was beautifully managed.

"It curved wonderfully three times and would then drop down finally rising to a great height when it again appeared like a small star far away."

"We could not see the occupant of the machine but there is no doubt whatever that the sky traveler was an aeroplane."

Nothing has been heard of the visit of the night flyer in nearby towns and the origin or destination of the aeroplane has not been discovered. Those who saw it are quite enthusiastic over the manner in which it was handled.

MURDER CHARGE AGAINST YOUTH

Story Starts from Frederick that Herbert Matthews was Responsible for Death of Robert Lyles in Driving Accident.

That Robert Lyles, who was killed in a driving accident between Gettysburg and Taneytown on Sunday morning, December 4 was killed by his companion, Herbert Matthews, of this place, is the story sent to the "Baltimore American" by a Frederick correspondent.

No credit whatever will be given the story in Gettysburg. Matthews resides with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Evans on South Washington street and he and Lyles were the best of friends.

The relatives of Lyles living at a distance take no stock in the story and have written to local people since the sad accident. The affair is simply the creation of some over zealous reporter who goes so far as to say that they are hunting Matthews with a warrant. Lyles' relatives would know quickly where to find Matthews if they wanted him. The story in the "Baltimore American" said:

"That Robert T. Lyles, colored, whose death at a stone quarry near Taneytown, Md., early this month, was supposed to have been accidental, was really murdered, is alleged in a letter from his brother, Arthur Lyles, of Westminster, Md., to his sister, of Frederick. Lyles states that he has sworn out a warrant for Herbert Matthews, whom he accuses of murdering his brother, and that Matthews is now being hunted by the Carroll county authorities. The death of Robert Lyles, who was buried in Frederick on December 6, occurred while he and Matthews were returning from Taneytown to Gettysburg, in a buggy. Matthews reported that the horse they were driving ran away, and they were thrown out, Lyles falling into a stone quarry and being killed, while he escaped with a few scratches. Arthur Lyles now claims that the occupants of the buggy quarreled and that Matthews killed his brother and then threw the body into the quarry to avert suspicion, afterwards scratching himself to give color to his story of the runaway."

The article in the "American" has the name of the dead man as Myles, instead of Lyles. We have substituted the latter name for the former, in the article quoted.

LUTHER A. KOHLER

Luther A. Kohler, of Littlestown, died Tuesday morning at 6 o'clock from a complication of diseases, aged 65 years, 7 months and 25 days.

He is survived by his second wife, nee Julia Hartman, and the following children by his first wife: Mrs. Lula Bettler, of near Gettysburg; Wm. A. Kohler, of York, and Ira Kohler, of Louisiana. Also by three brothers and five sisters, as follows: George Kohler, of Littlestown; William Kohler, of near New Oxford; Samuel Kohler, of New Oxford; Mrs. Agnes Duttera and Mrs. Abraham Rife, of Spring Grove; Mrs. Kate Weikert, of Red Land; Mrs. Noah Brown, of Hanover, and Mrs. David Stonifer, of New Oxford.

He was a native of Oxford township. His first marriage was to a Miss Culp of Gettysburg. After marriage they moved west, where they remained for several years. They then moved back to Oxford township where his first wife died. In 1889 he was elected to the Board of County Commissioners for a term of three years, and served in the position to which he was elected with credit to himself and his constituents. The same Fall, 1889, he was united in marriage to Miss Julia Hartman, of Littlestown, a daughter of the late Jacob Hartman, who also survives. Mr. Kohler took up his residence in Littlestown right after his marriage, and continued to live there up to the time of his death.

SUCCESSFUL YEAR COMES TO A CLOSE

Nineteen Hundred and Ten a Notable Year in Town and County. Big Crops in the County. Good Business in the Towns.

The last day of 1910 closes one of the best years which Gettysburg and Adams County have ever had, one of the most successful crop and business seasons in this section, and one of the best tourist years which the town ever enjoyed.

The year in both town and county has witnessed the erection of a large number of handsome homes, a sure sign of prosperity.

In almost every town and a large number of rural districts these residences have been erected and business buildings have also gone up.

The farmers of the county all report good crops in all lines and even those who had been fearful about the outcome of their year's labor have had to admit that the farming business in 1910 was a paying proposition.

The condition of success and prosperity has not been local but has been felt everywhere. Gettysburg and the county simply sharing in that which has abounded throughout the country. Its continuance during 1911 is assured. Already business firms are planning extensions and additions. There is no reason to believe that the coming year should in any way fall behind 1910 in the matter of building operations.

The county this year had its largest apple crop and the town had its best tourist season, both of which contributed their share to the general prosperity of the community. Unfortunately these will not be repeated this year, 1911 being the off year for apples while few attractions are booked for Gettysburg during the coming summer. However, general business will continue good from all indications and the year of 1911 should continue to show a prosperous town and county.

ABRAHAM W. WOLF

Abraham Winemiller Wolf, of Baltimore, a native of Adams County, while on a visit to his son, Dr. Charles A. Wolf, a practicing veterinary surgeon of Union Mills, Md., died very suddenly in the office of his son, shortly after arriving there Wednesday night, about 9.30 o'clock, before medical aid could be summoned. Death was due to heart trouble, from which he had been a sufferer for years.

Mr. Wolf was about 73 years of age and was born in this county, the son of Abraham Wolf, Sr. When quite a young man he learned the milling trade and for a number of years he owned and operated a mill near Raubenstein's store, which he sold later and moved to Baltimore, where he had since resided.

He is survived by his wife, three daughters and three sons. He is also survived by one brother, Albert Wolf, of Salt Lake City, Utah, and three sisters, Mrs. Samuel Dehoff, of Hanover; Mrs. Beniah Cassatt, of Gettysburg, and Mrs. Samuel Gutelius, of Littlestown.

Funeral Friday, Dec. 30, at 2 p. m., from the residence of Judge R. Nelson Koontz. Interment at St. Bartholomew's church, Rev. Mr. Lau officiating.

ARMY MEN INSPECT N. G.

The National Guard of Pennsylvania will be inspected in its various organizations by officers of the United States army at inspections separate from those made by the State's inspectors. The inspections of the various arms of service will be made by officers of those branches, infantry, cavalry, artillery, medical service, engineers and signal corps men coming under the eyes of regular officers trained in such lines.

It is the intention of the Adjutant General's department to make an assurance of entrenching tools for field service to the organizations at an early day and an effort will be made to allowance all of the new olive drab coats before the inspection by the regular officers.

86 HOBOES IN JAIL

What to do with the army of hoboos that infest Cumberland county and find their way into the hands of the constables, thence into those of the justices, and finally into the county jail as undesirable boarders, is probably worrying the Board of County Commissioners more than anything else at present. There are now about 80 in jail, and on Wednesday the commissioners paid one constable $70.50 and another $48 for arresting them. One justice was paid for committing them the sum of $166. The commissioners made it known some time ago that tramps who went there would have to work, but about all of them have done thus far is to shovel off the Court House and jail pavements.

ROBIN TAKES POISON DOSE

Bank Juggler Fails in Attempt at Suicide.

WAS TAKEN TO HOSPITAL

Awaiting Arraignment, Accused New York Banker Swallows Twelve Poison Pills, But Stomach Pump Saves Him.

New York, Dec. 31.—When Joseph G. Robin, the kite flying financier, whose schemes have closed the Northern bank and the Washington Savings bank, was about to face the first indictment of grand larceny against him he tried to kill himself.

Robin took twelve 1-12 grain pills of hyoscyamine, a poisonous alkaloid, but he didn't succeed. He spent the night in the prison ward of Bellevue hospital, where the doctors thought that he had an even chance for recovery.

Robin's attempt at suicide was the most sensational move that he has yet made within the past week since the state officials and the district attorney have been after him. He came down to the criminal courts building to plead before Judge Crain, and while the judge and a crowd of spectators were waiting for the prisoner to appear he collapsed in the detective bureau upstairs. It was generally conceded that Robin, in his present serious physical condition, would have died then and there, were it not for the immediate medical aid he received.

There was not the slightest doubt of Robin's attempt to kill himself. As soon as he began to be affected by the drug he groaned and told Dr. Austin Flint, the alienist, retained by former District Attorney Jerome to defend Robin, that he was dying. He said goodbye to his sister, Dr. Louise G. Robinovitch, and then a stomach pump was so employed that it brought about satisfactory results. No one seemed to know for certain whether Robin had taken hyoscyamine or hyoscine, but that didn't make a great deal of difference.

Dr. Flint, who was present through the excitement, said that Robin told him that he had consumed twelve tablets before he left his sister's house to come downtown to court. Robin muttered that his nurse left him alone in the bedroom for a few moments, and that he opened the drawer of a table beside his bed, took the box of tablets and swallowed the contents. It required about three-quarters of an hour before they worked.

Hyoscine is the powerful stimulant which was supposed to have been used by Dr. Crippen in the killing of Belle Elmore. Dr. Robinovitch said that she kept the tablets for the purpose of antagonizing the depressing effects of morphine which had been administered to Robin when he suffered from kidney trouble.

It was the opinion of the physicians around the criminal courts building that Robin hadn't taken a sufficient dose to kill himself, but they couldn't be sure until an analysis shall have been made.

The excitement following the news of the alleged madman's suicidal attempt threw the criminal courts building into an uproar. Every one had expected that Robin, following the reports of Drs. Flint and Mabon to Assistant District Attorney Nott declaring him well enough to plead to the indictment of grand larceny, would be released in $25,000 bail and would then be sent back to his sister's house until further notice.

Those in Eastern Part of State Had Substantial Increase.

Washington, Dec. 31.—Population statistics issued by the census bureau for cities and towns in Pennsylvania other than Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and other large cities, show some interesting figures.

DOG SPEAKS SEVEN WORDS

German Scientists Confirm Assertion of Gamekeeper.

Berlin, Dec. 31.—The assertion of a gamekeeper near Hamburg that his dog can speak German was taken so seriously by German scientists that Professor Pfungst, of Berlin university, headed a commission of investigation.

It is said that they found the animal possessed of a vocabulary of seven words which were clearly articulated. Of the number, four were words of two syllables. It is said that the dog understands what is said to him and replies to the inquiries of strangers.

Fire Does $100,000 Damage.

Winnipeg, Man., Dec. 31.—While returns are not yet complete, it is estimated by the local immigration commissioner that the total number of new settlers in Canada in 1910 was approximately 350,000, of whom 150,000 came from the United States.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. P. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

DOG SPEAKS SEVEN WORDS

German Scientists Confirm Assertion of Gamekeeper.

Berlin, Dec. 31.—The assertion of a gamekeeper near Hamburg that his dog can speak German was taken so seriously by German scientists that Professor Pfungst, of Berlin university, headed a commission of investigation.

It is said that they found the animal possessed of a vocabulary of seven words which were clearly articulated. Of the number, four were words of two syllables. It is said that the dog understands what is said to him and replies to the inquiries of strangers.

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free. P. J. CHENEY & Co., Toledo, O. Sold by druggists. Price 75c per bottle. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

Open the Door.

Open the door of your heart, my lad, To the angel of love and truth When the world is full of unnumbered joys

In the beautiful dawn of youth, Casting aside all things that mar, Saying to wrong, "Depart!" To the voices of hope that are calling you Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my lass, To the things that shall abide, To the holy thoughts that lift your soul Like the stars at eventide. All the fadeless flowers that bloom In the realm of song and art Are yours if you'll only give them room. Open the door of your heart.

Open the door of your heart, my friend, Headless of class and creed, When you hear the cry of a brother's voice, The sob of a soul in need. To the singing heavens that o'er you bend You need no map nor chart, But only the love of the Master. Open the door of your heart.

A Heartbreaker.

At a dinner last winter one of New York's prominent bankers was dilating on the dangers of deceit. By way of illustration he told of a society woman who saw in a jeweler's window a beautiful collar of pearls, which she wanted very much. Upon inquiry she learned the price was $6,000. Thereupon she gave her check for $3,000, saying she would send her husband to see the pearls, and if he could be persuaded to buy them he was to be told the price was only $3,000.

The jeweler, being familiar with that sort of game, readily agreed. The husband called during the day to see the pearls and that evening told his wife he had bought them, since they were evidently such a bargain. His wife was more than delighted and immediately asked if he had brought home the collar, to which he replied:

"Why, no, my dear; I had it sent to my mother. You know it is her birthday tomorrow."

MRS. STETSON'S PROPHECY DENIED

Scientists Ignore Resurrection of Mrs. Eddy.

FACTIONAL STRIFE RENEWED

New York Leader Says There is Nothing in Their Teachings to Make Mrs. Eddy Equal With God.

New York, Dec. 31.—The declaration by Mrs. Augusta E. Stetson, the ex-communicated leader of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in this city, of her conviction and that of many Christian Scientists throughout the country, of the imminence of the resurrection in fleshly form of Mary Baker Eddy, the founder of the Christian Science cult, had the effect of forcing the directors of the mother church of the faith in Boston into vehement denial of the orthodoxy of Mrs. Stetson's doctrines and those of her followers who believe with her that Mrs. Eddy will make a demonstration of her triumph over death, even as Jesus Christ did in Palestine 2000 years ago.

Mrs. Eddy's Name Dropped.

It also became evident that directors of the mother church in Boston, who have been left as supreme arbiters of the faith which Mrs. Eddy discovered and built up, have been forced to meet a distinct line of cleavage in the ranks of Christian Scientists throughout the country by their action, quickly seized upon by Mrs. Stetson, in dropping from the manual of the mother church the name and title of Mrs. Eddy as pastor emeritus of the parent church in Boston.

By their action the directors have declared themselves in the matter of an ecclesiastical difference of opinion in a way which threatens to open wider the breach between the "practical" and the "visionary" devotees of the faith.

Eugene R. Cox, the mouthpiece of the directorate in Boston, said that Mrs. Eddy's name had been dropped from the roll of the officers of the mother church because she was no longer pastor emeritus. That portion of the church which believes with Mrs. Stetson looks upon this action of the directors as indicative of rank lack of faith, since to their notion Mrs. Eddy still lives and still is pastor emeritus, or leader, over her pupils.

Signs of Strife in Church.

There also appeared the first definite indications that the crystallization of Mrs. Stetson's views concerning the inevitable demonstration of Mrs. Eddy in the flesh forecasts a renewal of the strife between the factions in the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in New York, when the annual election for trustees shall take place in January. Mrs. Stetson's beliefs have won to her party in the church a large number of converts, and the issue of the future control of the large congregation will be fought out at the election that is to come within the month.

The publication in the papers of Mrs. Stetson's unusual beliefs concerning the resurrection of Mrs. Eddy has stirred Eugene R. Cox, who is the publication committee of the Christian Science church for the state of New York, into unusual activity. He said:

"There is nothing in the teachings of Christian Science nor the writings of Mary Baker Eddy, its discoverer and founder, to justify any statements looking to physical resurrection, and any tendency or thought in that direction is abnormal in a Christian Scientist, as it takes account of the personality of Mrs. Eddy, which she deprecates."

"To attempt to deify her, or make her equal with God or Jesus the Christ is equally repugnant to the normal teachings of Christian Science. When asked if she were the second Christ, Mrs. Eddy said: 'Even the question shocks me. What I am is for God to declare in his infinite mercy. There was and is and ever can be but one God, one Jesus of Nazareth.'"

TO PROBE COST OF ROOSEVELT TRIPS

Rainey Asked to Look Into Cost of Trip to Africa.

Washington, Dec. 31.—"The African hunting trip as organized and carried out by the Smithsonian institution via Roosevelt," is the subject of the latest proposed congressional investigation.

The suggestion was received here by Representative Rainey, of Illinois, from a citizen of a Georgia town, who referred to such an inquiry as a "public service" and to the Smithsonian as a "trash-heap institution."

Mr. Rainey is the Democrat who recently introduced a resolution to inquire into the manner in which Mr. Roosevelt obtained his transportation and supplies on his trips about the country while he was president. Mr. Rainey purposes at the earliest opportunity to press this resolution, though it was referred to the rules committee and promptly pigeon-holed.

The Georgian declares that an extension of such an inquiry to include the way in which the African hunt expedition expense was borne by the Smithsonian institution "would show waste, extravagance and squandering of public money."

"The railroad traveling expenses come off the owners of the corporations, and they get enough to do besides dead-heading a Roosevelt," the letter added.

The Smithsonian has never reported the cost of the expedition to congress, but did submit a statement showing that 6663 skins and 2500 shoots of plants were obtained.

TWO ACCUSED AS COINERS

York Detective Makes Arrest and Finds Counterfeiting Apparatus.
York, Pa., Dec. 31.—Chief of Detectives Charles S. White has arrested Herb Thorne and Martin Shue upon charges of making and circulating counterfeit money. Thorne is accused as a principal and Shue as an accomplice.

White searched the home of Thorne and in the attic he found three sets of plaster dies. They were imitations of the 1909 issue. Several brass molds and a ladle for pouring metal also were found. There were several pieces of the spurious money in the room.

Shue, it is said, gave White the information and told him that Thorne had used glass, lead and babbitt in composition, and that much of the counterfeit money had been circulated during fair week.

Charges of robbery also have been made against the men.

PLAN ATTACK ON BLIND SENATOR

Probers of Indian Land Frauds to Assail Gore.

MISCONSTRUE HIS ATTITUDE

All Public Men Dragged Into Scandal
to Be Whitewashed by House Committee.

Washington, Dec. 31.—All the public men accused, directly or by insinuation, of conduct either dishonest or unbecoming a public official on Indian land fraud charges brought by Thomas Pryor Gore, the blind senator from Oklahoma, are going to get off with fine coats of whitewash.

The kalsomine for Vice President Sherman, Secretary Ballinger, Senators Curtis and Lorimer and Representative McGuire, of Oklahoma, has been prepared and, to all intents and purposes, has been applied.

But the house committee that investigated Senator Gore's charge that "Jake" Hamon offered or suggested a bribe of $25,000 in connection with the McMurray Indian contract legislation is going to "sting" the blind senator. The report to that effect is strong. The committee has already exonerated the vice president, Senator Curtis and Representative McGuire, the latter getting his bill of health just before the election, when it would do him the most good.

Going After Gore.

The understanding is that the house committee, in its report, is going to make a few observations tending to show that Senator Gore could not have been very deeply insulted at what he termed Hamon's suggestion of a bribe, because the official records show that after the offer was made Gore continued to work with Hamon to get legislation through desired by Oklahomans.

The official record does show that he continued to confer with Hamon and omits the fact known to Oklahomans, but not to outsiders, that his anxiety was to get through legislation about the decency of which there was no question then and is none now.

The Congressional Record, until a short time ago, made it appear that the blind senator tried to get through legislation validating the Rowell land claim. That usually veracious publication showed that Senator Gore submitted a paper in the Rowell claim purporting to show that the allotment made to the Connecticut Yankee, who had been adopted by the Kiowas, was all right.

The fact is that Senator Gore did not submit any paper at all in connection with the legislation on that subject, although the Record made it so appear. Senator Clapp, of Minnesota, rescued Gore from that hole by saying he had submitted a paper in connection with a bill introduced on the subject by Gore. The stenographer credited the paper to Gore. They admit their mistake.

But now comes Senator Clapp to say that the paper carried on the records of the senate as having been submitted by him is not the paper he intended to submit at all. He is not certain whether he actually submitted it, but if he did he had no intention of submitting it. The worst of it is he cannot find the paper he desired to file with the legislation.

Will Have Much to Explain.

The upstanding fact is that Gore has been placed in a position where he will have much explaining to do to his constituents, and the house committee, of which Chairman Burke, of the Indian affairs committee, is the chairman, is going to make remarks on the subject that will compel the blind senator to make more explanations than would have been necessary by the central fact that he continued to confer with Hamon even after the time the senator says the bribe of $25,000 was offered to allow the legislation to validate the McMurray contracts go through.

Baltimore Fireman Uses Revolver to End Domestic Trouble.

Baltimore, Md., Dec. 31.—William C. Strickler shot and killed his wife and nineteen-year-old stepdaughter, Leulah Kille, at their home, 2417 East Lafayette avenue. Strickler then fired a bullet into his own body.

Domestic trouble was given as the cause of the tragedy. Strickler was employed as a fireman at a power house.

Taft Gets 1911 Greetings.

Washington, Dec. 31.—New Year's greetings from foreign rulers are being received at the White House conveying to President Taft the usual felicitations of the season. Boatswain's Mate Killed on Cruiser.

Norfolk, Va., Dec. 31.—Patrick Conlin, chief boatswain's mate on the scout cruiser Chester, was killed while helping to hoist gear with the winch. One of his legs became entangled in a coil of the rope, and his body was twice drawn around the drum. His head was dashed against the deck and his skull fractured.

estimates over the mechanical fertility of American farmers have criticised rather sharply or pointedly at Mr. Wallace's assertion, when the likelihood is that if he erred on either side in the statement made it was that of conservatism. This law of the impoverishment of fertility as a result of the continued practice of raising grain crops and selling them in the raw state is just as inexorable and blinding as the law of the Medes and Persians or the law of gravity, and by no possibl-

FIGHT FOR $2,000,000

Woman Declares She is the Widow of Murdered Manufacturer.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 31.—The fight over the estate of L. V. Atkins, the wealthy proprietary medicine manufacturer, who was shot and killed in Chicago by his former business partner, began in the probate court here. It is said the estate is valued at $2,000,000.

The suit for a share of the estate left by Atkins is brought by Florence Fugazzi, of Cincinnati, who alleges she is the common law wife of Atkins. In the hearing counsel for the sister and brother of Atkins declared that Florence Fugazzi was not the wife of Atkins, and declared that she was married to Thaddeus Rowe, in Windsor, Canada, on Dec. 14, 1903. Her lawyer said she was never married to any man but Atkins.

Further hearing on the motion was set for Jan. 27.

WARRANT FOR KNOX AS SPEED VIOLATOR

His Auto Broke Law Going Through Lancaster.

Lancaster, Pa., Dec. 31.—Alderman Spurrier issued a warrant for the arrest of Secretary of State Philander C. Knox. Constable Keeley left for Valley Forge to serve it.

The secretary is charged with violating the automobile speed law, not, however, personally, but as the owner of the motor car bearing license No. 24,729. It is believed his son is the real offender.

Thursday a car bearing the above number was driven recklessly about the streets of Lancaster, nearly running down a number of people, and sending shivers down the backs of drivers of teams.

The motorist got away without being arrested, but a constable took the number of the machine and inquiry at the department at Harrisburg revealed that Secretary Knox held license No. 24,729.

Inquiry at the Valley Forge home of Secretary Knox brought forth the information that the secretary was in Washington. It was denied that a constable appeared at the Knox residence with a warrant, and it was further said that so far as known no auto belonging to the Knox family was in Lancaster on Thursday when the speed law is alleged to have been violated.

Constable Keeley upon his return from Valley Forge said he found neither Secretary Knox nor any of his sons at the Knox home at that place. As the automobile did not contain any one answering the description of President Taft's premier, all of its three occupants being young men, the constable concluded that P. C. Knox, Jr., was the man he wanted.

Going to Wayne, where young Knox has a garage, he was informed that Knox had gone to Philadelphia. The constable left his warrant with the Wayne police, with the understanding that it will be served upon P. C. Knox, Jr.

Mrs. Martin Must Stand Trial.

Trenton, N. J., Dec. 31.—Justice Swayne in the supreme court affirmed the decision of Judge Ten Eyck in holding that Mrs. Caroline B. Martin, who is facing trial for the murder of Ocie Snead, is not insane within the meaning of the statute which would permit her removal to an asylum instead of compelling her to answer the indictment.

It can be abrogated by published statements by the thoughtless, that it has no blinding force. Better far would it be if all who are interested in the fertility and cultivation of the soil should give serious heed to the warning referred to and so modify their operations as to conserve its fertility instead of wasting it heedlessly.

It is an interesting fact of natural history that white horses are always black as young colts. Did you ever note an exception?

WYETH'S
SAGE AND SULPHUR
HAIR REMEDY

Grew a Full Growth of Hair on a Bald Head

Here's the Proof

For two or three years my hair had been falling out and getting quite thin, until the top of my head was entirely bald. About four months ago I commenced using Sage and Sulphur. The first bottle seemed to do some good and I kept using it regularly, until now I have used four bottles. The whole top of my head is now fairly covered with hair and it keeps coming in thicker. I shall keep on using it a while longer, as I notice a constant improvement.

The birthright of every man, woman and child—a full healthy head of hair. If your hair is falling, if it is full of dandruff, or if it is faded or turning gray, it is diseased and should be looked after without delay.

WYETH'S SAGE AND SULPHUR HAIR REMEDY, a true Hair Tonic and Restorer, removes dandruff in a few days, stops hair falling in one week, and starts a new growth in a month.

Does not soil the skin nor injure the hair; but it is an ideal hair dressing that will restore faded and gray hair to natural color and keep the hair soft and glossy.

...The Leaders...

Have you ever thought what it means for a store stocked as ours is to adjust the stocks from season to season? What a deal of "red-ding up" is necessary? What a re-marking there must be for successful store keeping, of everything that will soon be unseasonable for selling--because one season laps the other in a big stock and business such as ours.

Every odd lot--every article that cannot be sold in the Spring--has had a lowered price put on it. Elegant things too--for the most part, as not much else finds place in our stock.

We must have our stocks cleared up in January--as already Spring Gingham, Percales, Long Cloths, Sheetings and muslins are arriving--for the use of early sewers. Every day brings New Goods from early January on. Every day brings a New Price on some odd lot that must be closed.

Can't You Write a Good Ad?

Look at those published to-day. Select some that impress you favorably--then "dissect" them. Count the facts they contain--and classify them. Make a memorandum of the facts that they omit--and then write some ads of what you WANT to sell. Put into them the same fact-features that made the other ads seem good to you--adding those the other advertisers omitted. Then you ought to have some selling ads.
